Care for the Carers

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Volunteer Coordinator

Qualifications	 Educated to degree level, or holding a relevant professional qualification 	Essential
Experience	 Experience of working in the voluntary or public sector 	Essential
	 Experience of recruiting and supporting volunteers, and of developing, implementing and evaluating volunteer programmes 	Essential
	 Experience of using a community development approach 	Desirable
	 Experience of using a range of office systems and IT packages such as Word and Excel 	Essential
Skills and Knowledge	 Able to develop and maintain strong relationships with colleagues and with key individuals in external agencies 	Essential
	 Excellent communication skills in both formal and informal environments, and the ability to gain and maintain volunteers' confidence 	Essential
	 Ability to manage changing priorities and own workload accordingly 	Essential
	 Ability to work independently, whilst maintaining good communication with colleagues 	Essential
	 Ability to produce written reports and undertake presentations to a range of stakeholders 	Essential
	 Current knowledge of good practice in volunteer recruitment and development 	Desirable
	 Experience of developing and delivering training 	Essential
Personal Qualities	 Commitment to equality and inclusion 	Essential
	 Possess good judgment and show discretion at all times 	Essential
	Organised and attentive to detail	Essential
	Approachable and professional	Essential
	Flexible and creative thinker	Essential
	Empathic and non-judgemental approach	Essential
	Ability to communicate well with colleagues	Essential
	Awareness of carers' issues and needs	Desirable
	Car driver	Essential